

I support XM's right to offer information geared to local markets such as weather and travel information. I should have the right to obtain this information in whatever manner I choose, whether it be on subscription radio or on public radio stations.